

I do not believe that loosening the restrictions on the No Call List would be a good idea. Telemarketers have proven time and time again to be rude, annoying, dishonest, and very hard to track down and prosecute. They are especially hard on the elderly like my mother whose mental capacity due to old age and strokes is not what it should be. I would like to see all telemarketing made illegal.